*"Cayuga! o'er no sweeter lake
Shall morning break or noon-cloud sail;
No fairer face than thine shall take
The sunset's golden veil."*

*"And still the water sings the sweet,
Glad song that stirs its gliding feet
And finds in rock and root the keys
Of its beguiling melodies."*

*"The leaves through which the glad winds blow,
Share the wild dance the waters know;
And where the shadows deepest fall,
The wood-thrush sounds his silv'ry call."*

*"Calm and still the mingled current
Gliding to the waiting sea
On its breast serenely pictured Floating cloud and skirting tree."*

History

We of the Class of 1931, during our four years here, have witnessed many changes in the Ithaca Conservatory of Music and Affiliated Schools. We have regretted the departure of Dr. Albert Sharpe and Mrs. Phyllis Spencer, and rejoiced over the coming of Dean Laurence S. Hill and Dean Ida A. Powell; we have mourned the death of our founder, W. Grant Egbert, and of our beloved band leader, Patrick Conway, and have welcomed to their exalted places on our faculty, Dean Adrien Newens and Dean Ernest S. Williams.

We have watched with pride, and have tried by our loyalty to assist, the progress of the Conservatory and Affiliated Schools. We have experienced the transition of our school from a mere normal school to a college with degree-granting privileges. We have welcomed Dean John Finley Williamson and his famous Westminster Choir School to our affiliation. We have witnessed and taken an active part in the expansion of various student activities, and have tried to cooperate with our faculty to further the expansion and progress of our Alma Mater.

The Class of 1932, like the graduating class, has witnessed many changes in the College. Outstanding among these was the recent change in the name of the school from the "Ithaca Conservatory and Affiliated Schools" to Ithaca College, and the subsequent change of degree-conferring privileges. Because of the new degree, next year will probably produce yet another revision in our course of study.

We have worked hard; we have played hard; and next year we look forward to greater cooperation and accomplishment for our class as a whole. We are prepared to assume the responsibility handed down to us from the Senior Class and hope to further devote our efforts to raising the standards of our Alma Mater, Ithaca College.

Time flies all too quickly. It seems only yesterday that we enrolled as Freshman in Ithaca College. To us will be relayed the responsibility of upholding the ideals and standards of our College, and during our two years here we have been preparing to meet this obligation.

Outstanding among the events of this year was the Junior Prom sponsored by us, the Class of 1933. Careful preparation and conscientious work resulted in what was rumored to be the most successful Junior Prom ever held at Ithaca College.

With continued growth in other lines of the enthusiasm and ability which made this social event so successful, we hope to contribute much to the growth and prosperity of our College.

The change in courses effective with the change in name will be more widely applied to the class of 1934 than to any other class in the college, since it will effect our next three years of study. Already we have participated in many of the changes which have motivated the growth and expansion of our College.

Arriving in Ithaca five days before the upperclassmen, we were privileged to attend orientation classes through which we became familiar with the founding, organization and administration of Ithaca College. During this time we also became acquainted with the beautiful city in which our Alma Mater is located.

Against the background of such knowledge the Freshman class has patterned a year of conscientious study and social activity which has added much to the growth and pleasure in the Ithaca College.

Cayugan

The success of the 1931 Cayugan is in many ways a distinct triumph for the staff. The reduction in price which necessitated a greater number of subscriptions, but which we felt was warranted because of general financial conditions, placed a decidedly heavier responsibility on the Business Manager and his assistants. The enlargement of the faculty section and the use of fraternity groups evolved great responsibility upon the editorial and photographic divisions in securing the cooperation of faculty and students.

To the large number who so readily cooperated with us, the staff of the 1931 Cayugan extends its whole-hearted appreciation.

The Ithacan

"The Ithacan" is the official publication of the students of Ithaca College. It is a weekly journal, edited and managed entirely by a staff of undergraduates appointed by the Student Council. Because of the fact that the paper is managed by students, the publication has been in a position to give true expression concerning the various phases of student life at Ithaca College. This has been the aim of the editors and managers of the 1930-31 issues of "The Ithacan."

This staff created history at the college when their twelfth issue appeared under the name of "The Ithacan." The official publication had been called previously, "Once-A-Week." The new staff was dissatisfied with the status of that publication, and accordingly, set about making changes. The paper was printed on news-print instead of the colored glazed material formerly used; a definite system of composition was effected; head-lining was systematized; a column system was established, and a system designed to assist in making the written material more readable was outlined.

The results were gratifying. Favorable comment on the work of the staff of "Once-a-Week" was heard in student circles. This encouraged them to make a radical departure; their more professional paper took unto itself a more professional name and "The Ithacan" was born.

Dramatics

All praise to the powers which made possible such an excellent season of drama for Ithaca College. Not in many years, if ever, has the Williams school produced such consistently excellent work as appeared in Little Theatre this year. To date, seven of the nine plays scheduled for production this season have been presented. Of this number six were of Grade A merit. The Little Theatre players, their director, and their scenic artist have set a high standard for their successors.

A revival of the summer school success, "Peg O' My Heart" opened the season pleasantly. "Mice and Men" helped further to impress Ithaca audiences that the Williams school students meant business, and when "The Enemy" was produced, many theatre goers thought that a climax had been reached. The excellence of these three opening shows was pronounced. Each is distinctly different in character, and each was reviewed enthusiastically by reviewers in "The Journal-News" and "The Ithacan."

The good work continued. "Shavings" proved so popular that an extra performance was offered in response to popular request. "Shavings" also enjoyed a popularity in two out of town performances. "The Taming of the Shrew" followed and was the season's most pretentious offering. Elaborate staging paraphernalia, excellent directing and unusually fine acting contributed to the establishment of the Shakespearean success of the year.

"The Perfect Alibi" was not good. Perhaps the excellence of the preceding productions served to emphasize its faults, but the fact remains that this play was not of the calibre Little Theatre patrons have come to expect. It's choice for presentation at Ithaca College was an unhappy one. The play itself is excellent. Why the school Thespians did so little with it will remain as mysterious as the play itself, in all probability.

The players staged a glorious come-back with "The Swan," however. Entirely of the calibre of the season's opening plays, "The Swan" proved popular with students of the college. It reminded one of the success of several seasons ago, when "The Queens Husband" was so delightfully commented on.

"Grumpy" will complete the season, according to plans at this writing. In view of the cast selected and pre-production plans, there is reason to believe that this play will be established high in the esteem of Ithaca theatre-lovers.

Gilbert and Sullivan's "Iolanthe" as produced by students of the Ithaca Institution of Public School Music was magnificent. The operetta was staged in the Strand theatre where it was hailed enthusiastically. The production was under the supervision of Dean Albert Edmund Brown, who was assisted by Dean Tallcott, Joseph Lautner, A. Lester Sisson, and A. D. Chadwick. A shorter operetta, "Trial By Jury" appeared in Little Theatre in December.

Too much honor can not be given A. Lester Sisson in mentioning the triumphant season of the Little Theatre players. As their director he can look with pride upon a splendid record of achievement. He was ably assisted in his presentations by the elaborate stage settings prepared by his scenic artist, A. D. Chadwick.

Music throughout the season was creditably rendered by an orchestra under the direction of Carlton Brown.

Faculty Recitals

The recitals presented by the members of the faculty of Ithaca College have long constituted an important place in the social and cultural life of the undergraduates at Ithaca. The 1930-31 series began in October when Francis MacMillen, master teacher in the violin department, played in Little Theatre. The concert preceded Mr. MacMillen's departure for Europe where he was contracted for an extended concert tour.

Dean Tallcott and Mr. Sydney Landon each gave a full-evening recital during the winter months. Dean Tallcott read "The Green Pastures" and Mr. Landon drew generously from his wealth of interpretive material in presenting an evening with the world's literary masters and their works.

Mr. William Coad presented a delightful violin recital in January. Mr. Coad is head of the violin department and his mastery of the violin was entirely apparent in his contribution to the faculty series.

The Faculty Quartette was presented in February. It was organized by Mr. Coad, its first violinist, and included Eugenia Adamus, violinist; Lynn Bogart, violist; and Rowland Cresswell, violin-cellist. This organization is the first of its nature to be composed by the faculty and their work was gratifying.

Working in cooperation with the staff of "The Ithacan," ten faculty artists presented a program in Little Theatre on April 14. The auditorium was completely filled as they presented what was the outstanding musical event of the year. On the program were Dean Brown, Dean Tallcott, Mr. Ziegler, Mr. Coad, Mrs. Hodapp, Mr. Baugartner, Mr. Landon, Mr. Lautner, Mr. McHenry and Mr. Lester. Their work was excellent and made possible the achievement of the staff of "The Ithacan" who were successful in their efforts to raise scholarship funds.

Recitals by Mr. Ziegler and Mr. Lautner will complete the faculty series.

Music

At the beginning of the year the Symphony Orchestra, formerly in the General Music Department, was placed under the direction of Dean Williams. It is now a part of the Band School, and the name of the school has been changed from the Ithaca Military Band School to the Ithaca Band and Orchestra School.

The Band and Orchestra have offered some fine programs this year and they have essayed more pretentious musical compositions than ever before. Programs everywhere have won the acclaim of the press and musical critics.

The Men's Glee Club, composed of forty-five members, is a new organization in the College. The first concert was presented in the Little Theatre late in the spring, and proved very successful.

The Women's Glee Club, composed of thirty-five members, made a tour through Massachusetts and Connecticut in May. Their first program was presented December seventh in the First Congregational Church of Binghamton.

The Westminster Choir has been very active this past year, and we are proud to note its enthusiastic reception at every performance. The first tour was made during the latter part of January, at which time concerts were presented in Steinway Hall and Carnegie Hall in New York City; in Scranton, Pennsylvania; and at Princeton University. The second tour, begun February 11 and extending over a period of thirty days, was made through the Southern states, where the Choir appeared in Williamsport, Pa.; Hagerstown, Md.; Harrisonburg, Va.; Raleigh, N. C.; Columbus, S. C.; Aiken, S. C.; Gainesville, Fla.; and Palm Beach, Fla.

Football

Ithaca's return to football came about last fall. A strong squad underwent preliminary preparations at Camp Singing Cedars before the opening of school and under the direction of Coach Schreck were drilled into condition for a schedule which brought them against St. Lawrence, Mansfield, Cortland, Hartwick and Colgate Frosh.

The team was sorely disappointed in several of their contests, the breaks of the game seemingly to pass them by at every point. Their only victory was scored against Hartwick, 25-0, though they tied the St. Lawrence Frosh 0-0. Cortland defeated them by two touchdowns, and the game with the Colgate Frosh ended in a defeat of 25-0. The scores are not a fair indication of the brand of football played by the Ithacans. Ill luck figured vitally in the opening of their football plans.

The squad was coached by Leonard Schreck, Cornell. On the team were Bergen, (Captain), Sweeney, Grant, Bradstock, Leavitt, Crawley, Manwiller, Long, Burbank, Clement and Tibbetts. Sides, Petras, Leonard, Dallaker and Messer saw action as valuable substitutes throughout the season.

Basketball

Coach Isadore Yavits may feel reasonably proud of the result of his first basketball season at Ithaca College. His men turned in seven victories during their season of play, — a season which carried them into a campaign against the strongest competition in their class of schools. Playing an aggressive type of basketball, the men of the Ithaca School of Physical Education scored 404 points in the entire season. Their opponents totaled 354 points.

The Ithaca men were victorious against the Morrisville Aggies, Syracuse, Oswego, Albany Pharmacy, Mansfield (2), and Hartwick. Our old rivals, traditionally, Cortland Normal, took two "heart-breakers". The first game with the Normalites resulted in a 21-18 score. The second ended 31-29. A strong team from Alfred defeated the Ithacans by only one point.

Captain Hutchinson headed a squad which included Morris, Snider, Karnowski, Axelrod, Alofs, Rebolto, Loescher, Edwards, Brennan, Farley and Benjamin.

The freshman team played excellent basketball throughout the season. They chalked up 16 victories and dropped 7. On the squad were Hickey, O'Brien, Hoffa, Swazzi, Sharpsteen, Phillipson, Schum, Fehling, Saperstone and Fasula.

The home games were played at the gymnasium and were followed by dancing. The freshman band of the Ithaca Band and Orchestra department played at several of the games. The attendance was good, season tickets being available at a reduced cost to students of Ithaca College.

Wrestling

Coach O'Connell's wrestlers opened their season with a 35-0 victory over Cortland. Colgate was beaten 28-0, but Mansfield took the third meet in the series, 21-9. A victory of 16-14 over the Mechanics Institute, Rochester, preceded a defeat by Alfred University. Mansfield took a second victory from Ithaca by only four points and a 29-5 victory against Cortland closed the season.

On the squad were Captain Willis, Manager Mead, DeGraw, Foote, Cole, Amsden, Gaskin, Manone, Hall, Fehling, Spencer, Britton, Schneck, Crawley, and Sweeney.

Soccer

A two-game series with Cortland constituted the soccer schedule for Ithaca. The first game ended in a 1-1 tie. The second game resulted in a 3-0 defeat. Nick Bawlf coached the squad which was composed of Captain Tucholski, Loescher, Alofs, McManus, Dodge, Willis, Grogan, Crighton, Cioneck, Hoffa, Benjamin, Snider, Walden, Holden, Coombes, Fehling, Charles, and Gaskin.

Hockey

Ithaca was defeated in their only hockey game of the season when they held a fast Colgate team to a 5-2 score. On the squad were Captain Vogt, Allan, Hall, Walden, McManus, Kipp, and Leavitt.

W. S. G. A.

The object of the Women's Self-Government Association, of which every woman in Ithaca College is a member, is "To maintain a high standard of conduct and decorum, and to strengthen the spirit of unity and sense of individual responsibility existing among the women of Ithaca College by practical, regulated cooperation".

As an example of successful cooperation throughout the year, we point with pride to the few cases brought before the W. S. G. A. Board, which, in conjunction with the Presidents of the residence halls, administers the government of the Association.

OFFICERS

President	ALVA OGSBURY
First Vice-President	MARY JANE MACPHAIL
Second Vice-President	DOROTHY LOESGES

Freshman Representative	PAULINE CRAIG
Representative of Ogos	MARIE FORSBERG

The Athletic Association

Coming to the close of the second year of its existence the Association speaks well of a remarkable growth. Nearly every popular sport has been sponsored, resulting in the activity of every student of the Physical Education Department and in the activity of several Fraternities from other departments. It is indeed a challenge to the Association, that of providing the means and the where-by for the participation in a sport of every student in the entire college. A new gymnasium will certainly solve this problem and it is one of the big objectives that each member of the Association should be striving for.

An expression of gratitude is rightly given here to Mr. Isadore Yavits, who so successfully supervised the intra-mural activities this past year and to the managers of the various inter-school teams for their splendid work. Bon Voyage Athletic Association of 1931-32.
